- A

Summary of charges and amount due.
- B

Tells you how much water you've been using compared to last year.
- C

Water Budgets are based on your household size and landscape area; Sewer blocks are assigned based on your household size (for water budget customers who are billed directly by EMWD for sewer.
- 1

Use your account name and number to register for our eBill system at www.emwd.org/eBill.
- 2

The number of days in your billing period affects your water budget and daily water and sewer service charges.
- 3

When the bill must be paid to prevent possible late fees.
- 4

When we expect to read your meter for the next billing cycle. Actual read date may vary.
- 5

Summary of activity on your account since your previous bill.
- 6

Detailed water charges include daily water service rate, water consumption amount and rate(s). Water budget customers are charged based on how much water is used in relation to their water budget (Indoor Use, Outdoor Use, Excessive, Wasteful).
- 7

Detailed sewer service charges includes daily rate. For water budget customers that are directly billed by EMWD for sewer services will see a total sewer service charge that is a percentage of daily rate according to their assigned sewer block.
- 8

As a courtesy, EMWD collects charges for other agencies in the community. For example, in the cities of Hemet, Perris, and San Jacinto, EMWD may be billing for trash pick-up and/or sewer charges. Phone numbers to call regarding these charges are printed on the back of the bill.
- 9

Total of all water, sewer, and other charges.
- 10

This is where important messages from EMWD will be printed each month.

The new block sewer rate structure is now in effect for all customers on water-budget based tiered rates that are also directly billed for sewer by EMWD. Please visit www.emwd.org/rates for more information.

Please see reverse side for additional information
